COCOA.

We are anxious for the returns of the election.

Mrs. Capron and daughter were shopping in Cocoa on Tuesday.

Mr. Vanlandingham, of Titusville, spent Monday and Tuesday in Cocoa.

Dr. Hughlett was called to Bonaventure Tuesday to see Mrs. Mims, who is quite sick.

Ralph Magruder is spending part of the week with his little sister, who leaves for Clinton, S. C., on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lapham are rejoicing over the advent of a little daughter, Abbie Elizabeth. Grandma Hill is all smiles.

The whole community is regretting the fact that Miss Dodson will not be in the school again. No teacher has ever been to Cocoa who was so universally liked. We will give the new teacher a hearty welcome.

The young people of Cocoa and Rock Ledge are getting up a dramatic entertainment to be given at the town hall next Friday, July 25. The program will consist of a one act farce, followed by a minstrel, under the able management of Mr. Sam Childs. After the program ice-cream will be served. The cast of characters in the farce, "Per Telephone," is as follows: Mr. Guy Harling, Mr. John Powers; Mr. Ned Austin by Mr. G. Van Haute; Miss Nan Cuzzin, Miss Myra Williams; Miss Mary Halcome, Miss Ella Singleton; Nora, a servant, Miss Kate Eyer.

OAK HILL.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Null were at Mr. J. S. Gaines' Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. L. H. Barber left Monday for Hastings, and with her mother, Mrs. Middleton, will go from there to Reynolds, Ga., for the summer.

Mrs. J. S. Gaines has returned from her visit to Saulsville accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Ellen Carlisle, and son, who will remain with her for a few weeks.

Mr. H. S. Barker is hauling lumber preparatory to building an addition to his house, and will be able to accommodate quite a number of guests this winter.

Miss Mary Summerlin, of Oak Hill, was married in Sebastian, July 7th, to Mr. Wilkinson, telegraph operator at that place. The young couple have our best wishes.

Mrs. F. W. Bright, who has been visiting her friends here for the past week, left Tuesday with her three children for Cordele, Ga., where Mr. Bright is now working.

Married, July 8th, 7:30 p. m., at the residence of Mr. A. A. Montgomery, by Mr. W. C. Howes, N. P., Miss Sarah J. Bellamy and Mr. A. J. Montgomery. A number of the neighbors were invited and treated to a fine wedding supper, after which they indulged in dancing till midnight, when they left, wishing the bride and groom much happiness.

Bearproof Wagons.

Bears are more numerous in Yellowstone park this year than ever before, says a dispatch from Mammoth Hot Springs to the St. Paul Dispatch. Among the objects of interest the bearproof meat wagons used to transport meat over the mountain roads to the park hotels occasion no little comment. On first sight they are taken for government ammunition wagons, as they are built along bombproof lines. The wagon beds are about three feet high and covered with heavy sheet iron, iron gratings on the ends providing ventilation.

The bears are so numerous that these wagons have become a necessity. An ordinary wagon bed with a wooden box would be torn to pieces in a single night and the meat taken or carried away. It is doubtful if even these bearproof wagons would withstand the test if exposed too long, owing to the ingenuity and great strength of the animals.

A New Culinary Caprice.

Select small cantaloupes, put them on the ice for several hours; then cut each one in halves crosswise, remove the seeds and seed pulp and fill the cavity with cream, covering the top with white cream, and serve.

MELBOURNE.

Tuesday being election day, we noticed a number of old-time friends in town.

Judge Minor Jones, of Titusville, spent Sunday in town, the guest of Mr. S. F. Gibbs.

Mr. John Jones, of Titusville, was in town lately. Also Attorney D. L. Gaulden.

Two popular traveling men, Messrs. Fudger and Moore, were late guests of the McBride house.

Mr. John Minor came up from Malabar Tuesday, where he has been spending some time with Mr. Henry Stark.

Miss Jessie Goode is again home and at work as usual as postmistress in the Melbourne postoffice. She enjoyed her vacation at Ankona.

Mr. John Henry came down from Titusville last Tuesday, and went to visit his old-time friend, Major C. E. Graves, at Melbourne Beach.

The new auditorium to the postoffice, being built by contractors Hoke & Stetter, is well under way, and will add much to the comfort and convenience of Postmaster Goode.

The Jackson family left here last Monday for their new home in Fort Pierce. We shall miss the society of these pleasant people, and wish them success in their future home.

Mr. Byington, editor of the Miami News, was one of the guests at the McBride house last week. He made some new friends in town, who will be glad to see him in Melbourne again.

Capt. S. M. Martin treated some of his friends to a moonlight ride to Melbourne beach last Monday evening in his launch Dreamer. The bathing by moonlight in the ocean was delightful. Among the guests were Mesdames R. B. Templeton, G. M. Brown, L. A. Peek, G. M. Phillips and Meta Mack; the Misses Lela Barnes, Mattie Brown, Jessie Goode, Viola Horton and Alma Martin; the Messrs. John Nicholson, J. G. Horne, G. M. Brown, J. A. Hoke, Fred Fee, M. Salano, E. D. Oslin, Dr. L. A. Peek and Rev. R. B. Templeton.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Cholera, Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. B. R. Wilson & Son will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints, and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

New Order of Soldiers.

An old soldiers' organization has been started at Washington, and it is planned to extend it all over the country and to take into it all citizens who ever have fought for the United States, says the New York Times. Speaking for the new organization, "Private" Dalzell said: "This organization is intended to embrace soldiers of all wars and their sons in a national political organization. It will not interfere with party politics, religion or any other obligations of its members. It will not antagonize the Grand Army of the Republic or the Union Veterans' union or any other patriotic organization now in existence, because the members of this new organization belong to the others. The intention of the promoters of the new combination, if it may be so called, is to have organizations by states, congressional districts, counties and precincts, the same as the political parties have organizations today. It is the purpose of the organization to control nominations and elections of men who are favorable to the soldier and if need be to defeat, without regard to party, any man in the country for office who has demonstrated hostility or indifference to the interests of the old soldier of any and every war."

"So broad is this new order that President Roosevelt, himself an honorably discharged soldier of the United States army, may and likely will become a member, as will also, if they desire, General Breckinridge and 'Fighting Joe' Wheeler, although they were fighters against the Union in the civil war. The single requirement for eligibility is an honorable discharge from the military or naval service of the government. Sons of eligible members will also be admitted to the order. The Grand Army of the Republic is prohibited by its constitution and bylaws from interfering in any way in the nomination or appointment or election of any person to civil office."

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to, but simply because they must. They know they are irritable and fretful; but they cannot be otherwise.

They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffy fullness, headache, heartburn and what not.

The effectual remedy, proved by permanent cures of thousands of severe cases, is

Humor of Manila Fight.

Captain Pohl, who was on board the German cruiser Irene in Manila harbor, relates in the Berlin Marine Rundschau what he deems to be the "amusing basis of the American misconception of the attitude of Germany toward the blockade." He says the band of the Irene played an American air after saluting Commodore Dewey's flag, and the Spanish pilot thought it was the Spanish coronation hymn and related the incident ashore in extravagant language.

The Spanish newspapers in Manila, it is added, printed this version of the incident, and the Spaniards in Manila and elsewhere showed an enthusiastic liking for everything German, the commander of the volunteers of Iloilo telegraphing to the commander of the Irene his thanks for the "sympathetic demonstration."

The Americans in Manila, therefore, according to Captain Pohl, believed the pilot's story, but Commodore Dewey, knowing the facts, laughed at them.
